

FAQs

What do you need to set up?

We are self-sufficient! We have a 42-decibel silent generator is there is no power available and hot running water as well as refrigeration and freezer. All we need is a piece of flat ground to park the trailer (Approx 2m by 4m)

How much notice do we need to book our event?

As much notice as possible is best for us as we would love to help you though we also have a diary of events J We will do our best to accommodate your last minute bookings where possible.

Do you cater to specific Diets?

We understand not everyone eats the same and we do cater for vegan and vegetarian diets.

Do you have liability insurance?

Yes indeed, we are covered up to £5million. Please just ask us if you would like the certificate it is always in our van.

What about health and safety?

We have hygiene certificates and have gas safety certificates and pat test certificate. We have been working in food for many years and always carry these with us. Please ask us if you would like to see these.

What makes you better than other street food vendors?

We have a lots of experience with food (over 15 years in fact!).

We use the best ingredients.

We use local produce and support local business and farmers.

We love what we do.

We pour love into the food we create.

We have very high standards.
